

Index - Side A

- 0:00 Introduction
- 2:25 His parents were farmers, they planted rice.
- 2:50 In 1919 he went to Hawaii as a recruit to a pineapple plantation.
- 3:53 1923 he went to the U.S. (Oakland). He worked in Providence Hospital for 1 year then took a test for a Class A Chauffer's license.
- 4:51 He worked as a family cook and driver for many families.
- 5:53 1926 worked in Fairfield labor camps.
- 7:29 In Los Angeles he took radio courses, then went back to Sacramento, 1928-30, and farmed. They couldn't make much selling what they raised so they fed many of the Filipinos who were without work.
- 8:40 1931 worked in Woodland at the King Ranch clearing over 2000 trees. They now have asparagus fields there.
- 10:11 1941 Bombing of Pearl Harbor. Joined service July of 1942.
- 12:29 Tells of meeting wife in the Philippines.
- 15:37 Took part in the mop-up operating in Leyte and Samar.
- 17:29 Atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima.
- 18:23 January, 1946 he returned to Sacramento.
- 20:40 Married April 1947 in the Philippines and returned to Sacramento July 1947 and began farming again.
- 24:30 Bought a home in Broderick and contracted asparagus for 1 year.
- 26:00 He got a ^dradio job at the Army Depot and attended American River College taking radio courses.
- 27:03 1955 he worked as a radio repairman at Mather Air Force Base.
- 27:49 1960 repairman job was abolished by Pres. Nixon. All civil service jobs given to private contractors. He got a job in Ground Power as a mechanic.
- 29:25 He retires.

Index - Side B

- 0:15 He still sees and works with many of the Filipinos he was in the service with.
- 1:30 He talks about the Filipino Regiment during WW II.
- 3:40 There were only from 3-6 Filipinas in the Sacramento area when he came. Many of the Filipinos went back to the Philippines to get married.
- 7:50 He is involved with various Filipino community organizations, including the Masons, Visayan Club, and the Pangasinan Organization.
- 13:42 The Filipino Community of Sacramento and Vicinity organization is supposed to be the leading organization of Filipinos in Sacramento.
- 15:34 The Community organization is supposed to guide and maintain the traditions of the Filipinos.
- 16:50 When he was farming he tried to set up a warehouse made up of Filipino businessmen to sell their produce. They refused to take part.
- 18:58 He would only like to visit the Philippines and not go back to stay. Sacramento is his home, his family and friends are here.
- 21:16 END